Accessing QuickSpecs Online

QuickSpecs Online can be accessed via the QuickSpecs site at www.hpe.com/info/qs. Here you find links to 'Active' QuickSpecs documents, further guidance and latest updates.

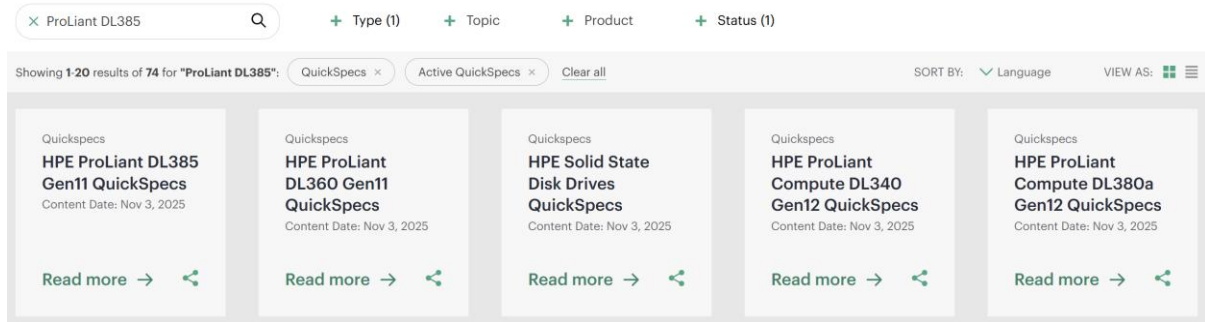

Searching for QuickSpecs

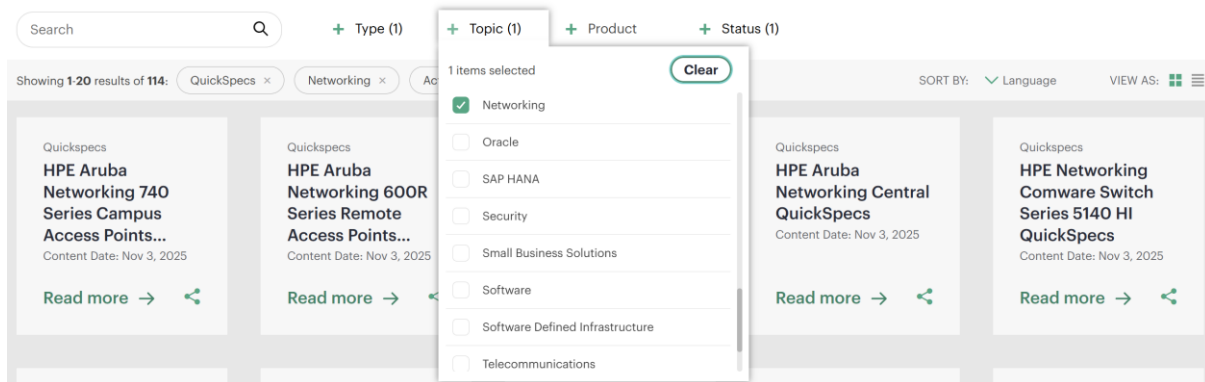

For searching documents on the QuickSpecs site, as a first step, click on Search Active QuickSpecs. You will see that there are several hundred QuickSpecs documents available:

As a next step, you can use the full text search. For example, enter “ProLiant DL385” and you will get relevant results:

Or you can search by Topic:

Product:

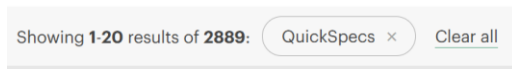

or Status:

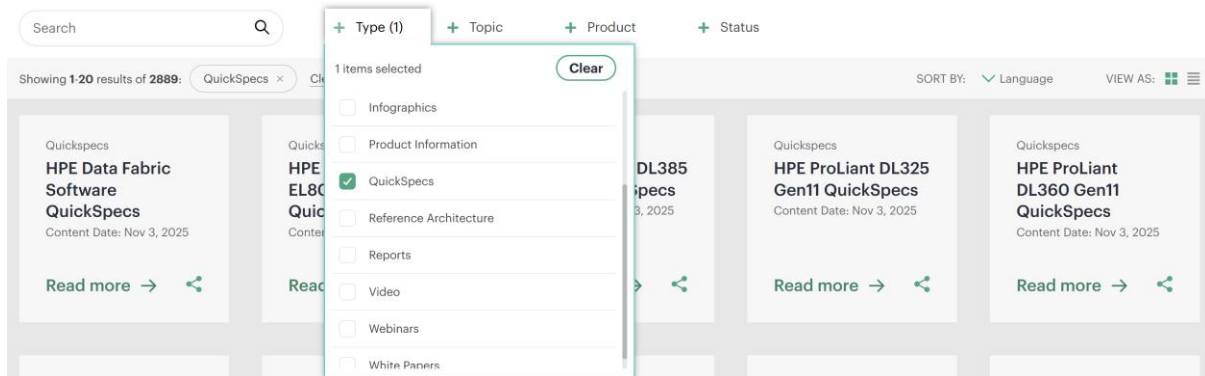

You can use the “Clear” button on the filter drop down to clear the filter for your search.

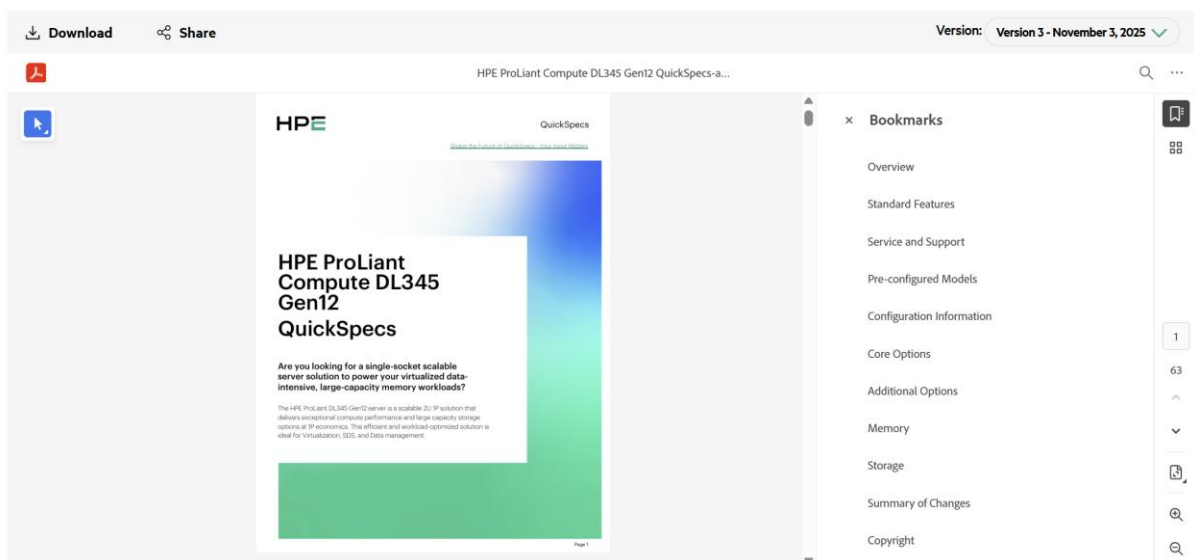

Clicking on “Clear all” will clear all applied filters including the Type filter for “QuickSpecs” and will show you all library entries including videos, brochures, etc.

You will have to select the QuickSpecs Type again to only see QuickSpecs document:

Clicking on a QuickSpecs tile will open the document on a new tab:

The drop down next to the Version label will allow you to view historic versions of the QuickSpecs document.

Clicking on the Bookmarks icon will show you the chapters of the QuickSpecs document.
